AMA Prexy Scores Gov't Decision on Drive Test

Alarm at the viewpoint of the provincial government in refusing to institute a drivers' testing program was expressed today by Jack House, chairman of the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Motor Association.

He said improved highways will increase traffic and tend to increase driver's needs, making tests for drivers more important than ever.

"Speaking as an individual, I say it would be very regrettable if a future mounting accident rate could be attributed to an unimaginative viewpoint on the part of the provincial government," Mr. House called for an "intelligent" outlook on the part of the government.

FAVORS COURSES

The AMA favors courses in driving instruction in high schools as the logical place to start training, he said.

School instruction would be followed by a driver's test when application was first made for a driver's license.

"Testing of new applicants for the start a general program," he said.

The opinions of Mr. House were supported by John Hayes, vice-

HUBBY JUST GETS NO BREAKS IN THIS LIFE

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(CP)—An alarm with an uneasy note for alcohol breath may intercept hubby tipping upstairs after an evening's carousing.

A British firm is producing the gadget.

Fine Weather To Stay On

Fine weather still prevails in the Edmonton region, with maximum temperatures topping the forty degree mark.

This morning, the weather office defined an overnight low of six below at Prince Albert. Temperatures at Fort McMurray dropped to a low of five below, while Norman Wells chalked up an impressive 19 below.

In Edmonton the overnight low was 20 at 2 a.m. with a high at 2 p.m. yesterday of 42 degrees.

There was no precipitation here but a trace of snow was recorded at Grande Prairie.

Mild Pacific air dominates the southern Alberta region and will spread slowly northward after the afternoon to Manitoba.

There will be variable cloudiness today, with little change in temperature.

President of the Edmonton Taxicab Operators' Association.

"Taxi operators are in favor of testing for drivers' licenses," he said. "It would be an important forward step to promote general traffic safety."

He pointed out that, like ordinary automobile drivers, applicants for chauffeurs' licenses are not tested.

Italy Red Strike Fizzles Out

ROME, Dec. 1.—(UP)—A nationwide 24-hour general strike called by Communist labor unions fizzled out before it ever got started today.

Officials estimated that it was only 10 per cent effective in Rome and 20 per cent throughout Italy.

In contrast with previous labor demonstrations, no trouble was reported anywhere in Italy, and routine public life was barely affected.

Toronto Fat Men Sorry Broda Causing Stares

TORONTO, Dec. 1.—(CP)—A lot of "stylish anxiety" must be looking anxiously at the scales today.

This business of reducing weight was raised to front-page prominence in Toronto when Managing Director Conny Smythe of Toronto Maple Leafs benched five of the National Hockey League players, warning them to get down to fighting poundage by Saturday "or else."

It became a topic far wider than the sports pages when the dieting progress of the hockey players was accompanied by various puns, showing efforts to take off extra poundage.

Bailey Bridge Across Former Span Gone As Rain Continues

From CP, UP Despatches
WEST VANCOUVER, B.C. Raging flood waters swept away the 110-foot Bailey Bridge spanning the gap in the Capilano river bridge at 1:15 p.m. today, just five minutes before engineers and police stopped all traffic across it.

Loss of the temporary span built by army engineers last Saturday means that West Vancouver is now isolated from the city proper except by water.

High winds and heavy rain threatened now 46,170,122,224 throughout British Columbia as thousands of water rolled down mountainsides to swell rivers and create a near-dread stage.

Seymour river went on the rampage, threatening suburban North Vancouver homes and business places, while in Monday on a workmen battle the Capilano river.

At Port Alberni, 35 miles west of Vancouver, the river broke its banks and carried away a toll of 19 lives and caused property damage estimated to run into millions of dollars.

WATER IN STREETS
Some homes were isolated in North Vancouver today and water flowed down block-long Villa Vista street.

Call went out from North Vancouver for volunteers to aid in salvaging the Seymour river banks.

Many basements were flooded in Vancouver and other lower mainland districts.

Canada's Pearson Blasts Vishinsky

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(CP)—The United Nations assembly today beat down Soviet opposition and adopted Anglo-American resolution laying down the essentials for a permanent peace. The vote came after L. B. Pearson, Canadian external affairs minister, had urged Russia to halt the Cominform from trying to overthrow other governments by force.

The vote on the 12-point resolution was 53 to 5 with Yugoslavia abstaining. It was the largest majority for western powers on a major issue in UN history. The Soviet bloc alone voted in opposition.

Just before the balloting, the 59-member assembly heard Andrei Y. Vishinsky of Russia about a deal that his country is interfering in the affairs of Yugoslavia.

The Soviet foreign minister blasted Pearson and other delegates for what he called a campaign to destroy Marxism.

One point in the assembly declaration calls on all countries to refrain from any intervention in the affairs of other countries.

Vishinsky told the assembly Yugoslavia's charges of Soviet interference are "senseless."

PEARSON SPEECH
In his blunt and outspoken speech, Pearson told Vishinsky in the Soviet foreign minister's own words that "ideological intervention is wont to become military."

"That statement... embodies the greatest threat to peace that we have."

Pearson listed his warning along with a note of hope during final hours of debate on the rival Anglo-American and Russian peace proposals.

If Vishinsky really believes his own statement that there is common ground for co-operation between East and West, Pearson said, then there is "great hope."

"But this belief must be demonstrated in deeds," the leader of the Canadian delegation said.

He said the most useful contribution Vishinsky could make to the cause of peace would be a practical suggestion which "the honest 'thinkers' could be a basis for negotiation."

12 Atlantic Pact Nations Adopt Plan

From UP, CP Dispatches
PARIS, Dec. 1.—Defense Ministers of the 12 Atlantic Pact countries reached final agreement tonight on a master plan for the defense of western Europe in case of attack.

The ministers and their ranking service leaders met for five hours at the French navy ministry. Before them was a plan designed to bring the full weight of their armed forces to bear in case any one of them is the victim of aggression.

The five-hour session resulted in an agreement that top military planners of the western world had as the path to "international peace and security."

Immediately after the session, Defense Secretary Louis Johnson of the United States left by air for Washington to take the plan to President Truman.

Approval by the president will release $2,000,000,000 worth of military aid for Europe.

PLANNING UNDERWAY
Earlier, Canadian Defence Minister Brooke Claxton said the Pact nations have made "more than a beginning" in strategic planning for defense of the North Atlantic area from the Mediterranean to the Arctic ocean.

Claxton at a press conference agreed with Johnson that western Germany should not be resumed at this time.

"After western Germany gets democracy going on a working basis," he said, "the time may arise when we can come together."

"I hope that when the time arises—and I don't think it is in the immediate future—we shall be together rather than finding Germany with the other group."

An appeal court justice in Toronto ruled a man is not permitted to file a policeman's finger even if the officer strikes his finger in the man's mouth. Chief Justice R. S. Robertson dismissed an appeal by Stanley Breasky, convicted of assaulting an RCMP by biting his finger while police man was searching Breasky's mouth for narcotics.

Rita Hayworth, whose baby is expected shortly, confines her daily routine in Lausanne, Switzerland nowadays to walks in the woods and auto rides. Husband, Prince Aly Khan, is her constant companion, according to wire reports.

Little Bobby Secker of Belleville, Ont., is feeling fine today. What is quite something considering he swallowed a white light bulb while playing yesterday.

A man from the U.S. walked into a London bank, showed $37 towards the cashier, and asked for five sterling pounds. The cashier gave him 4.12 in exchange. The pound's been devalued you know, said the cashier. The Yank hadn't heard. Poor old Britain would be much better off if a few thousand similar Yanks dropped into London banks.

Politics

Canada's House of Commons saw a strange spectacle today. An opposition member urging that discussion of a government bill be as short as possible. It was a bill to provide federal inspection of fish and marine plants, and Gordon Higgins, M.P. for St. John's, said the House shouldn't waste time passing it. "It will be of great value to fisheries," commented Mr. Higgins.

Result of the 22nd federal election got a big boost from Tory leader George Drew in Ottawa. "The majority of those who have tried it (Labour government) obviously don't like it," the gurgling one said.

Twelve nations have joined the U.S. in protesting to Chinese Reds against the arrest and detention of U.S. consil-general Angus Ward, but Canada has not yet decided on a course of action.

The Canadian Federation of Home and School Associations in Montreal have coined a new word to describe undesirable comics—"crimics." A report from the group says comic dealers made over $16 millions in profits last year. And that doesn't tend to create better clients, it contends.

Thousands of Reds Move Into Capital

China Communists Take Over From Underground Forces

HONG KONG, Dec. 1.—(UP)—Thousands of Communist troops were scheduled to march into Chungking today to take over the abandoned Nationalist capital from Communist underground forces.

A report from the new Nationalist "war capital" of Chengtu quoted telegraphic authorities as saying Communist troops moved peacefully at 5 p.m. yesterday when advance Communist units crossed the Yangtze river in help maintain order.

All Nationalist troops, including the garrison commander, General Yang Han, evacuated Chungking early Wednesday. This left a temporary vacuum but tentative looting was halted by underground forces which came into the open.

Four municipal representatives, including the chairman of the chamber of commerce, crossed the Yangtze shortly before noon to greet the Communist forces massed on the south bank.

OCCUPATION TODAY Available reports said the Communist commander informed the delegation that his troops would take over the former Nationalist capital some time today.

Some Communist units crossed the river yesterday afternoon, however, and occupied Chungking airfield, five miles outside Chungking.

Other units took over the adjacent suburb of Fushingwan, highest point in Chungking's environs, from where Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek directed wartime operations against the Japanese.

Report from Chengtu said meanwhile that Chiang was preparing to resume an active role as head of the Nationalist government.

Drivers' Tests Cut Army Loss

WINNIPEG, Dec. 1.—(UPI)—Strict driving tests and frequent checks of cars and trucks have reduced army motor accidents in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and the Lakeland area until Prairie Command now has the lowest accident rate of any army command in Canada. This was disclosed today by military authorities.

The tests are part of the service safety program put into effect for the army, army and RCMP in 1948.

The use of drivers' aptitude tests and the education of army drivers by means of films, posters, lectures and study on road rules has resulted in a "substantial reduction" of accidents within the command according to Captain T. Caruthers, safety officer at Prairie Command.

"By means of the aptitude tests it has been possible to reject potentially dangerous drivers who, while competent in other military duties, would be a poor risk at the wheel of a vehicle."

Flee Reds

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—(AP)—More than 20,000 Soviet-zone Germans have sought political refuge in West Berlin in the last eight months, the city government said yesterday. The rate has now reached almost 400 daily.

BOMBING TERRORISTS SCARE RAIL WORKERS

NELSON, B.C., Dec. 1.—(CP)—A demand for protection against bombing terrorists was made today by railwaymen in the West Kootenays.

Disturbed by a series of track explosions in the last three weeks, the rail workers called on federal authorities to take immediate action.

The men, it was reported, may refuse to handle trains in the Kootenays, running through Doukhobor districts where Sons of Freedom, a radical branch of the religious sect, have been blamed for acts of terrorism.

In the latest explosion Tuesday night, a section of Canadian Pacific Railway track was torn out 19 minutes after a freight train had passed the point.

Upward Hike Is Forecast In Living Cost

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(CP)—Rents and the readjustment of prices resulting from devaluation may provide two important realignments in October's cost-of-living index.

The index will be issued tomorrow by the Bureau of Statistics.

A new quarterly survey of rents has been completed by the Bureau and will be included in October's index.

Devaluation, although it didn't arrive on the Canadian scene until Sept. 20, already has shown what it can do by forcing the prices of United States coal and gasoline upward.

PARTIAL TEST Canada, however, obtained only a partial picture through the September index of the impact of devaluation. October's compilation will show the first full month in which devaluation has been at work.

The index itself, which reached a peak of 128.3 in July, now touches 122.2, scaled down by lower food prices. The index is based on 125-129 equals 100.

Food prices dropped in August, and continued to decline in September. As a result, the food sub-index—which makes up one-third of the entire barometer—has dropped from a peak of 202.2 in July to 205.6 in September.

Subsidy Provincial Affair, Gardiner Says

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(CP)—The federal government still believes the matter of supplying seed grain at reduced prices to prairie farmers in drought areas is a provincial responsibility.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner restated the government position yesterday as Commons passed a bill amending the Prairie Farm Assistance Act. John Diefenbaker, (C-Quebec) asked whether the government was considering supplying farmers in drought areas with seed wheat at reduced prices in order to enable them to carry on and face the next year with at least the opportunity of again challenging nature.

Mr. Gardiner replied: "We have had operations since I have been in the department of agriculture from 1 think every province in Canada for assistance in connection with the provision of seed. We have always taken the position that this is a provincial responsibility."

EASIER TO GET AID

The bill contains three provisions: 1. In an area which has been declared eligible for PFAA payments, any rectangular block of six sections of land (640 acres to a section) in which the average yield is more than 10 bushels may be taken out of the area of payment. Formerly the block had to be nine sections with an average yield of 10 bushels or less. It could be exempted from receiving payments.

2. In a township which doesn't qualify for assistance as a whole, payments may be made to farmers in any six-section rectangular block having a yield of eight bushels or less. This block must be adjacent to a township that is eligible for assistance.

Formerly the size of the block had to be nine sections with an average yield of 10 bushels or less. 3. Any rectangular block of land of the size of a half township (16 sections) or more in which the yield is eight bushels or less per acre can qualify for assistance just as if it were a whole township. Maximum assistance under the act is $2.50 an acre for a crop yield of eight bushels or less and $2.50 for eight bushels down to five bushels. Maximum for any farm is $500.

Busy House Commons Legalizes Seven Bills

By Robert W. Relford
OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(BUP)—The legislative mill spun at top speed today as the commonwealth's eye turned away from government legislation toward the trip home for Christmas.

In contrast to the early part of the session when several days often were spent on one measure, the house passed a total of seven bills amending the Judges' Act and the Industrial Development Bank Act were the first order of business today.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent had set the end of this week as the target date for prorogation, but the mound of legislation still to be acted on appeared certain to keep the session alive well into next week.

PROTECT WEALTH

The most important bill passed yesterday paved the way for Dominion-provincial co-operation in protecting Canada's tremendous forest wealth. The government legislation received warm applause from the opposition.

Resource Minister Colin G. Campbell explained that the bill allowed the government to make agreements with each province for the protection of forests, reforestation and research into new methods of protection. He said it also provided for construction of roads and improvement of streams in forest areas, improvement of forest management inventories, and forestry publicity and education.

STIFF FINES
The measure also placed strong teeth in forest protection regulations. Persons found guilty of starting forest fires would be

Winding Road Needed To Satisfy Tooters

By Mel Sufrin
OTTAWA, Dec. 3 (CP)—Route-tooting has become a popular pastime on parliament hill.
To be a route-tooter you must toot the horn for what you think should be the route of the proposed Trans-Canada highway.
Route-tooters weren't confined to members from any one part of the country.
There were westerners who played peep-toot with the three passes through the Rockies.
Quebec members tooted for the north shore or south shore route along the St. Lawrence river depending on the location of their constituency.
SCENIC ATTRACTIONS
The scenic attractions of Canada's island territories were tooted into the route-tooting pot.
All considered it was a colorful illustration of the way in which the various members look out for their particular constituencies.
It was also a frustrating display of publicity tooting. Reason is that the route of the highway will be decided by the individual provinces.
Most exciting route-tooting exhibition was on the question of how the highway is going to cross the Rockies.
NORTHERN ROUTE
The Alberta government has come out in favor of the central pass route through Calgary and the Kicking Horse Pass.
A. F. Macdonald (L.-Edmonton East) said he thought this decision was "hasty" and "ill-considered." He is in favor of the Yellowhead Pass route through Edmonton.
His reasons included the contention that there is less snow along this route; the elevation through the Rockies is less; it would serve the greatest number of people; across the prairie, the Yellowhead route would touch on the scenic delights of Jasper and would go directly from Winnipeg through Saskatoon to Edmonton.
John Blackmore (S.C.—Lethbridge) naturally wanted the highway to go through Lethbridge. He said:

"I had the greatest sympathy with Mr. Macdonald's wanting the highway to run through what he described as 200 miles of swamps from Edmonton to Jasper. He supposed the Crow's Nest route when he said:
The suggestion that my tourist from Edmonton to Jasper. He should take some highway that would avoid both Banff and Jasper is in par with the suggestion that you might as well give your automobile the money to visit England for six months and tell him to be sure not to go near London."

TURKEY PRICES SUPPORTED IN U.S.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (HUP)—The U.S. government has taken over more than 725,000 pounds of turkey meat in order to support prices. Officials of the Department of Agriculture don't expect to take a loss on the birds. Nor do they expect retail consumer prices of turkey meat to boom.
Considerable of the meat is expected to be sold to the American army, at no loss to the department.

Jim Coyne's Rise To Power Meteoric
OTTAWA, Dec. 3 (CP)—Story of Jim Coyne's rise to banking stardom is one of chance combined with a dogged determination to get ahead.
At 30, he has become deputy-governor of the Bank of Canada, an industrial leader in the economic and financial structure of the country. He is the second of Gordon, chosen president of the Canadian National Railways.
Sometime through a decade ago, Jim Coyne has managed to remain a bachelor—one of the most eligible bachelors in Canada, with a salary between $20,000 and $25,000 a year.
Sometime too, he has managed to keep alive an interest in a great many things besides banking. He is a collector of Canadian art, an enthusiastic golfer,

Labor Gov't Steel Move Is Ironical Compromise With House of Lords Stirs Speculation

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(CP)—Labor's decision to reverse its field on steel nationalization is regarded as an outstanding political irony.

By sacrificing the terms of its bill to nationalize iron and steel, the government in effect agreed with the conservative House of Lords that the industry should be left alone until after the next election.

This represents a new approach. For two years, Labor argued vigorously that nothing should be allowed to interfere with the proposed legislation. Come what may, Socialists said, iron and steel would be brought under state control.

WAS UNTHINKABLE
Any suggestion that the Conservative majority in the Lords might delay the take-over until after the election was ridiculed. To Socialist supporters, it was unthinkable that a hereditary body of peers could thwart the wishes of the elected House of Commons with its large Labor majority.

But the government finally decided to compromise with the Lords. Instead of a Lords' proposal postponing the steel take-over until Oct. 1, 1950, the government submitted one saying that the corporation which would run the nationalized industry should not be appointed until that date.

The wording was different, but the meaning was the same.

CHANGE OF HEART
Thus the Lords had triumphed, and Conservatives in the Commons enjoyed a satisfactory interlude when government spokesmen sought to explain the change in heart.

Now the fate of steel hinges on the election, which must come before next summer. If Labor is returned, nationalization will be just a formality; if the Conservatives win, the bill will be dropped.

Xmas Visit

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(UPI)—Sharon Douglas, attractive blonde daughter of U.S. Ambassador Louis Douglas, was en route to the United States today for a Christmas visit.

She left London for New York last night aboard Pan American World Airways. Her mother and father will join her shortly.

MULE-TRAIN DRIVER Charlie Ward, 82, kisses his bride, Mrs. Catherine Ginter, 65, following their marriage in Pittsburgh, Pa., as Dr. Ted V. Vorhees, who officiated looks on. Bridegroom holds Jimmy Waluk, one of the bride's eight great-grandchildren who attended the ceremony. Said Ward of Mrs. Ginter, "She's my little prairie flower and I'm taking her home to my ranch in Wisconsin."

Tuberculosis Authority Hails Use of Streptomycin

By Robert Marx
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(CP)—Streptomycin is at present the most effective weapon against tuberculosis and will never be abandoned, says Dr. H. McLeod Riggs, prominent tuberculosis authority.

"Streptomycin is without any peer in the treatment of tuberculosis," he said in an interview.

A professor at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons, Dr. Riggs has pioneered a chemotherapy of the dread "white death."

He also is chairman of the medical research committee of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Asked to comment on recent articles, notably in the British Medical Journal, warning that streptomycin may have to be discarded because of serious side-effects, Dr. Riggs said these claims are "largely false."

"When used properly the drug is 90 per cent safe," he added.

FAMILY TOO

Yukon's M.P. Is Homesick; Starts Back

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(CP)—A member of parliament and his wife and two young children are today being flown into an automobile for a 5,000 mile Christmas trip back home to the Yukon.

James Aubrey Simmons, Liberal representative for Yukon-Mackenzie River, said that although the session does not end for another week or so, he couldn't wait to get back to Whitehorse.

He and his wife, Del, and their two dogs, Prince and Sol, made the trip from the Yukon by car just before the session opened.

They will then take a boat north to Whitehorse. They expect to be home in about ten days.

Labor Names Arbitrators

CALGARY, Dec. 1.—(UPI)—Labor representatives for arbitration boards which will hear wage disputes between the AFL, Denver Dispatchers Union and Alberta hotel owners have been named.

Tappan, waiters and other dispenser union men won a general raise of seven cents per hour and a 40-hour work week. They presently get six dollars and six cents if they are tappers and 90 cents for straight waiting on tables and glass-making. Quartermen get 90 cents and they put in a 44-hour work week.

Representing labor in the dispute with 37 Drumheller hotels, is Thomas Macle, president of Drumheller sub-district No. one of District 18 of the United Mine Workers of America, AFL.

Medicine Hat dispensers are represented by AFL first vice-president Robert Scott.

W. L. Harding, who is Calgary inspector of the Board of Industrial Relations, has been named co-arbitrator between dispensers and two High River hotels.

Wood Meet
OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—(UPI)—The Canadian Lumbermen's Association will hold its 42nd annual convention in Montreal, Feb. 23, 24 and 25, it was announced today. President Colin Mackay, of St. John's, N.S., will preside.

Prairie Farmers Get $17 Millions

Farm Assistance Group Starts Shelling Out Big Melon Today

By Douglas Green
Canadian Press Staff Writer

REGINA, Dec. 1.—(CP)—A big day is coming for cropless farmers in Canada's prairie west.

Starting today they'll share a $17,000,000 melon. It's no ordinary fruit. Slicing it takes months of enormously detailed work by the staff of the prairie farm assistance administration in Regina.

"The rash starts about Oct. 1," said R. F. McGregor, PFA director. "At its peak, about 1,500 cheques, worth $300,000 go out daily."

There's nothing haphazard about the distribution. The PFA office has a battery of six calculating machines hard at work. It needs them.

All individual payments to the approximately 7,000 farmers who will receive PFA benefits this year have to go through the machine.

And the formula for determining a farmer's eligibility for assistance is not as simple as it sounds.

Not so simple. A farmer may have two or three holdings in areas which are categorized in different categories, said Superintendent C. C. Brown. "Every rectangular block of six sections or more (a section is 640 acres) must be checked to determine its eligibility under the Act."

This year, the 43,000 farmers in the southern area of Saskatchewan—Saskatchewan—a region which experienced its worst drought year since 1941 will receive the lion's share of PFA payments, amounting to about $13,000,000.

Farmers in Alberta will receive about $3,000,000 and those in Manitoba—the province least affected by drought—about $1,000,000.

Under PFA 60 per cent of the payments are to be made in December and 40 per cent next March.

500 FIELD MEN
PFA occupies an entire floor in the Dominion Public Building in Regina. It has 500 field men and dozens of supervisors in the three prairie provinces.

When it's time to approve applications for assistance, representatives of field men are called in. The harvest is over. But the task of helping these farmers who have fallen victims to natural hazards remains to be done.

That's the object of PFA, set up in 1939 to assist the farmers in drought areas of "grocery and clothing money" until the next harvest.

Other criticism includes "prolonged procedure" for conciliation under the industrial conciliation and arbitration act.

First Budget Indicates Deficit For Newfoundland

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Dec. 1.—(CP)—Finance Minister Herman Quinn, bringing down Newfoundland's first budget since confederation, yesterday estimated a deficit of $2,800,000 during the first year of union.

The budget covers the period from April 1, 1949, to March 31, 1950. Revenue was estimated at $20,162,500 and expenditures at $22,962,500.

It was the first deficit presented

Glamorous Grandpaw Recalls Glory Effort

By Virginia MacPherson

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 1.—(UP)—Carl Brisson, that glamorous Grandpaw, claimed today he was the first star to have his mug televised across a body of water. He said he can spot anybody who tries it now by almost 20 years.

The body of water was the North Sea, and the year was 1930.

It was also one of the first coast-to-coast television debuts—from the coast of England to the coast of Norway.

"And it was a tremendous success," Brisson said. "The Prince of Wales, who later became king, you know, was in Oslo to receive the show direct from London. He said he was very impressed."

That, the Dashing Dane figures, made him one of the early pioneers of television. He hasn't mentioned it before because he was waiting for "the right time."

"It was in all the papers then," Brisson added. "But people seem to have forgotten it now."

He hasn't, because it marked his debut as a television entertainer—and his flop as one of its financing "angels."

But he hasn't exactly gone hungry in the years in-between. Brisson's the only owner in the business who's kept three decades of fans swooning over his dashing looks and manly figure.

Although coy about his age, he doesn't hide the fact that his son Freddie is married to Rosalind Russell, and his grandson, Lance, is nearing the ripe old age of five.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Cesar Romero and 20th-Fox have come to a friendly parting after 13 years of association. "Actually it has been 15 years," the actor recalls. "Because I was under contract to 20th Century for two years before it merged with Fox."

"There was no trouble between the studio and me," he said. "I just wanted to get out of the rut. I had been doing some pretty bad pictures."

"I don't think I'll sign with another studio. I want to try freelancing. I doubt if I'll make more money this way, but I'll have the chance to choose the roles I'll play."

Romero is now playing a meanie in his first outside film, "The Iron Cage." His next plan, a color musical which will be filmed in England and Scotland next year.

Talk of the town is the poor life done by Shirley Temple's new two pictures. Belief is that her divorce is hurting her box-office...

Mickey Rooney and Lew Ayres may have left the studio, but they are still working for MGM on radio transcriptions.

Strange how few academy-worthy female performers this year and how many male ones. Last year was the reverse.

Producer Dave Garber has a 15-year franchise to make films in Kingston, Jamaica. He says conditions are ideal for filming there and plans to import Hollywood talent and workers.

"The Hasty Heart" (WB) is a simple and touching story of the aftermath of war. It's a tale of a dour Scotsman torn to die in a Burma hospital. Fortunately, it's done with good sense and sentiment. Ronald Reagan and Patricia Neal are fine, but the real news is Richard Todd, who is handsome and convincing as the Scot. (AP)

British Fuel Chief Comes To Aid of Absentee Miner

By Alan Harvey
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(CP)—Why does a miner stay away from the pit? Is he lazier than other people, or is the work so hard he feels justified in acting the part of old man out?

For generations, private enterprise tried to find the answer. Now three years of coal nationalization, Britain's Labor government has put its finger on what it thinks is the biggest reason for absenteeism in the mines.

It is as simple as this: The miner values time above money.

"They used to say the miners had nothing to buy," said Minister Hugh Gaiskell told the House of Commons.

"What is much more likely is that time that goes with it, the position would be different."

Gaiskell was speaking in the first full-dress debate on the report of a nationalized industry. He pleaded for a moderate approach to absenteeism, a subject which he said had generated bitterness inside and outside the industry.

In the first place, he said, miners are tired of being singled out because there is so much statistical information about them. Everything was known about the miners, but not everything "is known about other people."

In the second place, absenteeism was common among miners everywhere. It was just as bad in "practically all" the mining industries of Europe as it was in Britain.

GAITSKELL GAMBLER
Gaiskell took a long gamble. He didn't want to be accused of condoning absenteeism, he said, but it must be remembered that miners have only 10 days statutory holidays and one week of paid holidays a year.

"It would not be surprising—'the Commons yesterday by George Murray (L.—Cariboo)."

During discussion of Prairie Farm Assistance Act, Mr. Murray suggested farmers from dust-bowl districts be moved to northern British Columbia where "land is available and where people can grow 20 or 30 bushels to the acre."

"It occurs to me that if there is a dust-bowl in parts of Saskatchewan, where the farmers cannot grow more than five or six bushels to the acre, the Minister of Agriculture might very well consider moving whole settlements of them up into northern British Columbia."

Sask. Farmers Urged To Go To North B.C.

During discussion of Prairie Farm Assistance Act, Mr. Murray suggested farmers from dust-bowl districts be moved to northern British Columbia where "land is available and where people can grow 20 or 30 bushels to the acre."

"It occurs to me that if there is a dust-bowl in parts of Saskatchewan, where the farmers cannot grow more than five or six bushels to the acre, the Minister of Agriculture might very well consider moving whole settlements of them up into northern British Columbia."

NEED A 'STAKHANOVITE'

How to Get Speed-Up Worries U.K. Laborites

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The Labor government appears to be borrowing an idea from both the Russian Communists and the American capitalists in its attempt to speed the economic crisis.

The idea: That the harder a man works the more pay he should get. Even if the hard worker should make more than the laggard even if the two work side by side as members of the same trade union.

In Russia they call their hard workers "Stakhanovites" and make heroes out of them. They get extra pay.

In the United States and Canada management tries to push along and reward the workers who really produce.

In Britain Socialists generally have long argued that any two factory workers in the same job should get the same pay. In the past trade unions even have put dampers on members who plug too hard.

The subtle but significant change first became apparent a couple of weeks ago when Herbert Morrison, deputy prime minister, said:

"The more of the team who do a better day's work than the next man or team should be entitled to correspondingly better earnings."

The People Write . . .

"An 11-year Westerner," the sentence in your column of last evening prompts me to put in a two-bits worth. That sentence was "perhaps the Flyers' defense began in too close on the goalie."

"I have maintained for the past couple of years that our defense does back in too close on the goalie. They did it on Bollinger—they did it on Woodall, and now it's Fredrick for the same treatment."

"A few close game last year were not the point. Woodall was bad but because he never saw the puck until it was behind him."

"Actually, I figure we have two defences—one capable of good play and three who seldom really play a good game. I think Kreier would make a smart defenceman—his weight nicely when he wants and is a nice checker."

"... Can't always agree with your ideas and comments but of course you can't please everybody."

Comment: The writer also suggests a remedy for defences who back in too far on their goaltender. He says I think an old flat-of-the-blade slap on a defensive player by Fredrick might be helpful."

As for "pleasing everybody" . . . even Barnum was satisfied to find some of the people some of the time.

Tom Duran, assistant publisher, The Bulletin, Los Angeles, "After the season," which has been modified by committee studying baseball rules, is demonstrated by Boston Braves' second baseman Eddie Slinkey. A strike now is being played between the players and the owners. Uppermost mind formerly was player's shoulders.

Comment: Mr. Duran, recuperating from a recent illness, is doing the same thing, looking up the strike, sunshine. Speaking of "spectacles," think what a spectacle Notre Dame made of Southern California (32-0) last weekend.

(Aside to Mr. Duran: How come you wind up sitting behind Joe McCrea when Ava Gardner was in the crowd?)

Rat Gunn, 12510-80 street: "Since when has the sports page become a place to use the latest thing in men's clothes? How about sticking to your job and write the kind of sports we'd like to read." (Ref: to last night's column).

Comment: Just so reader Gunn doesn't get a gun and come ashore everything it's alright. In defence of the column, I refer to the "Colony" by Fredrick and his "49 sport jackets," etc. I can only say it was supposed to serve as a change of pace, deemed necessary even in this track-of-business.

Comment: It didn't fool Miss Myster Gun.

Seah, Perry, Wetaskinuit: "I have been appointed publicity man for Wetaskinuit Colonels and will appreciate anything you can do for us."

Comment: "Dear Seah: If those Colonels with a few hockey games it'll be easier to go along with what you request. Incidentally I'm an honorary 'Colonel,' having been duly given the works several years back by Cecil Richards, ory Merrier and more of the 'old Colonel' executive."

"Canadian Supporter": "Who's Leo LeClerc?"

Comment: Officially "Land-baby LeClerc" as he's known to intimates, is chairman of hockey for Edmonton Athletic Club. Unofficially, he's a pretty good analyst of the hockey picture. Among other things he deplores the fact that "midnight and juvenile, particularly, are asked to play NHL rules."

"They would learn a lot more playing the old onside code for a few years," says LeClerc.

J. Trout, Red Deer: "We, the sports minded group in Red Deer had a discussion over the sports being played in the various countries, known as their national sports. We know the USA has baseball and Canada hockey. But isn't Canada, in recent years adopted hockey as the national game?"

Comment: Don't think hockey has become Canada's national game—officially. However, few Canadians think of it as anything less, particularly as lacrosse is played and viewed—by a comparatively small percentage of the sports going public.

Also Mr. Trout, it's good to know there is a sports minded group in Red Deer. There really hasn't been much evidence of the sports for a few years.

Sometime I must tell you in more detail about the uniforms being worn by the Red Deer ball club last time I saw them play. I've often wondered, for instance, why the team leaders couldn't have afforded to tog up all the players alike.

The pitcher, as an example, worked in his ordinary dress shoes, minus cap. As for the first baseman—no, he (indicating laughter)—he had an "Eat at Joe's" sign, or some such, on the back of his monkey suit.

NEWCOMBE, SIEVERS WIN ROOKIE AWARDS

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Pitcher Don Newcombe of Brooklyn Dodgers and outfielder Roy Sievers of St. Louis Browns yesterday were named the outstanding rookies of the 1949 baseball season by the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

Two 24-man committees took part in the voting. Each committee member was allowed to name only one man. The National League writers picked Newcombe almost unanimously, giving him 21 of the 24 votes. Don Crandall, 16-year-old catcher for Boston Braves, drew the other three votes.

Sievers received the support of 10 of the American League writers to double the total of Philadelphia Athletics' Alex Kellner, his nearest pursuer.

Late Goal Beats Smoke Eaters

WHALE, B.C., Dec. 1.—(CP)—Bill Knicker's goal with less than three minutes to go in the third period kept Spokane Flyers a 2-1 victory over Trail Smoke Eaters last night in a Western International Hockey League fixture.

Game, featured by close checking, went scoreless for two periods before Trail took the lead on Don Anderson's goal.

Monarchs Win

WINNIPEG, Dec. 1.—(CP)—Win-

ningipeg Monarchs defeated league-

leading Brandon Wheat Kings 6-

4 last night to force a two-way tie for second place in the Manitoba

New Well Good Near Woodbend

By Don Flach

One of the larger wells of the Woodbend field has been completed in the Leduc-Woodbend corridor by the team of Home, Anglo and Calgary and Edmonton Corporation. The well, No. 15 and eleven successful completions in the block established a potential of 2,700 barrels daily.

It is bottomed in the 130 to 1,500 feet and test lasted one hour. A longer test was not possible because of limited storage facilities.

Rig has been moved to drill the 12th and last well in the three-quarter section, east-west spread in the corridor area. Many of the sites on the property are capable of producing from both the 130 and 1,500 zones.

INTEREST DIVISION

Anglo-Canadian has a 52 1/2 per cent interest in the holdings Home 27 1/2 and the Calgary and Edmonton Corporation the remaining 30 per cent.

Capital Petroleum Company, Oil Capital Edmonton Ltd., with T. R. Cairns as president, is preparing to drill a test well in the area about 23 miles east and south of Woodbend. The well will be known as American Leduc-Vanier-Cairns Test No. 1 and will be drilled on Jan 13-21-23-24.

Contractor, Northern Development Co., is presently working on the site, located on property acquired from American Leduc-Petroleum which obtained the reservation from the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Location is about nine miles southwest of the site of the Leduc-Petroleum, which was abandoned.

Drilled Petroleum No. 1 at the north end of the Leduc field is drilling at 2,600 feet. At the opposite end of the field Leduc-Cairns is drilling at 4,850 feet.

Drilling at the Home Charlotte Royalty test well on Graham Island is now underway. The well was spudded yesterday afternoon at 3 p.m. following completion of the job of moving a rig from the Alberta plains. It was reported at 81 feet this morning.

Royalties test northeast of the Redwater oilfield is still moving in. Test at Pekisko, near High River in southern Alberta, has surface pipe.

RIGHTS NEAR EXCELSIOR

Petroleum and natural gas rights in a section of land in the southwest of the Imperial Excelsior well are being offered for sale to the rights to be sold Dec. 15. Rights are being offered in four parcels of one-quarter section each and they are in section 29-25-24-4.

At Stettler, British Empire Development No. 1 is now on stage production and giving about 500 barrels daily. Actual figure for the wells potential is not available, according to company officials, because of lack of storage facilities and because of the fact that production was flowing through two-inch tubing only.

Rye Advances At Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Dec. 1.—(CP)—Rye prices showed good gains on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today.

In an otherwise dull session, fall demand appeared in rye from Chicago, commission houses and American interests. Heavy buying on the Chicago market stimulated the advance here.

Prices in oats and barley were light with only routine shipper demand in oats and small local interest in barley. Both grains moved narrowly.

In export business, 90,000 bushels of Canadian wheat went to the United Kingdom under the long-term agreement, 213,000 bushels of the same was taken by French Morocco and 125,000 bushels went to the Republic of Ireland.

In addition, a small quantity of wheat was bought by Switzerland.

Prices of class two wheat was unchanged at $2.30.
